

Guide to raise dispute for your Experian Credit Report

Want to request a correction in your Experian Credit Report?

Here's how you can raise a dispute to request a change in your personal details, financial information and more in your Experian Credit Information Report, in a few simple steps.

You can raise a dispute on your Experian Credit Report in two ways:

Option A: For Consumer Bureau report, directly accessing the Dispute page here

Or

Option B: Logging into your Experian Credit Report account here

Or

Option C: For Consumer/Commercial/MFI reports, if you need to raise a dispute related to your report (Consumer, Commercial or MFI), you can reach us through any of the following methods

Customer Support Helpline: 02268165681

Email: consumer.support@in.experian.com

Walk-in Address: Experian Credit Information Company of India Private Limited 5th Floor, East Wing, Tower 3, Equinox Business Park, LBS Marg, Kurla (West), Mumbai - 400 070, India

Option A: Directly accessing the Dispute page

Step 1

Once you click on the dispute page link you will be able to view a form asking for your Experian Reference Number (ERN) and Unique Transaction ID (UTI).

Please enter the following details to raise a dispute on your credit report

Experian Reference Number

Unique Transaction ID

For ERN

You will find your ERN on the top right corner of the Experian Credit Report.

For UTI

You can find your UTI, a globally unique identifier for your individual transactions, in the email body sent by Experian Credit View.

The screenshot shows the Experian Credit Report interface. The Experian logo is in the top left. In the top right corner, the text "Experian Credit Report" is highlighted with a red rectangle. Below this, there is a section titled "CURRENT APPLICATION INFORMATION" with a green checkmark icon. It contains a table of personal details: Name, Mobile Phone, Passport Number, Email, Telephone, PAN, Voter ID, Aadhaar Number, Driving License, and Ration Card. Each field has a corresponding input box or dropdown menu.

If ERN & UTI is older than 30 days, you will have to fetch a fresh report to raise a dispute*.

The screenshot shows the same dispute form as before, but with an error message overlay. The message says: "Your report appears to be older than 30 days! Please click the button below to fetch your latest credit report before raising a dispute." Below the message is a button labeled "Access Credit Report". The form fields for ERN and UTI are visible in the background.

Option A: Directly accessing the Dispute page

Step 2 Checks prior to raising a dispute

The screenshot shows the Experian Dispute page. A modal window is displayed in the center with the following text:

If you have made a recent payment, it is advisable to wait for 30 days for the same to appropriately reflect in the Credit Information Report.

Below the text is a blue button labeled "Close".

The background of the page is dimmed and shows the following fields:

- Date Reported: 15/07/2023
- Account Detail: [Redacted]
- Account Status: [Redacted]
- Account Type: [Redacted]
- Account Opened Date: 15/06/2017
- Choose a date: [Redacted]

- Prior to raising a dispute, kindly allow 30 days' time for any changes like foreclosures, payments, closures etc. to reflect in your report.
